

PAUL CONTI

“..and a pleasant surprise was a tidy little pinot from WA’s Paul Conti. Conti is best known for his robust reds and quirky, slightly sweet fronti, but this pinot sourced from his Manjimup vineyard is terrific. It’s well worth the trip to his home base in Wanneroo Road.”

Medici Ridge Pinot Noir 2009

“Expressive and deliciously varietal pinot noir from Conti’s Manjimup vineyard.

The aromas of light cherry and damp forest floor earthiness are wonderful.

The palate is light to medium-bodied but immensely powerful. A most complete wine.”

90/100

The West Australian
FRESH liftout
Wine by Ray Jordan
Thursday, January 28, 2010