

PAUL CONTI

Nero d'avola 2020

The Conti's have been dabbling in d'avola for a few years now and are beginning to achieve a consistency that captures this famous Sicilian red variety perfectly. Typical red cherry and dark chocolate with a fine ironstone minerality. Super fine tannins are quite chalky and help define the palate structure. Lovely balance and poise.

93/100 | Cellar 8 years

Ray Jordan's WA Wine Review 2023